Richmond, Va., January 1.—Gov.
O'Ferrall has not yet appointed a Judge of the Corporation Court of Norfolk to fill the vacancy occasioned by the refusal of Mr. Thomas H. Willoox to qualify. It is said that there is a very interesting question of law involved in this matter, but it is not known that this has anything to do with the Governor's delay in making his selection; possibly it has. In the opinion of a good many lawyers Mr. Wilcox's declination to qualify does not make a vacancy. They contend that Mr. Wilcox should have qualified and then resigned the office.
It is likely that he has been urged to pursue this course so as to re move any doubt that might exist in the minds of some as to the right of the Governor to make an appointment.

I asked Judge Waddill to-day if he knew anything about the alleged "fair election" movement. He replied that he had heard the matter talked about a good deal, but was not in a position to give the public any information. When asked if Col. William Lamb was not one of the leaders he said he was not really able to say, but he knew that the Colonel was an enemy of the existing election laws. It has been a matter of gossip in political circles here for several days that Col. Lamb was the person looked upon as the commander in the campaign to be fought this year. This report, however, may have grown out of the fact that the Colonel has recently heen active in charging fraud in the last election. Col. Lamb is popular personally, but it is to be doubted that he could handle the Democrats who are expected to join the "fair I asked Judge Waddill to-day if who are expected to join the "fair elections" movement.

personally, but it is to be doubted that he could handle the Democratis who are expected to join the "fair elections" movement.

Mr. Sonthward has not let it become publicly known who is to be his counsel in his contest for Col. Tazewell Ellett's seat in Congress. It was presumed that Judge Waddill would represent him, but the Judge said to-day he had not been retained nor did he know who had been engaged. Soon after the election Mr. Southward held conferences with the Judge and it is quite likely that he was frankly advised not to make any contest. There are good reasons for believing that Judge Waddill does think and never has thought that Mr. Southward held conference was made that some of the lesser lights among the Republican lawyers will be Mr. Southward's counsel.

Dian Bran-I take pleasure in giving you a statement of the really wonderful effects of your Bitters in my own case. I suffered from a most intense attack of acute dysrepsia, brought on from long continued imprusione. After trying sli the usual remedies at the hands of revcral croerenced physicians besides my own, without the slightest benefit accruing, I r solved toury your Fitters. While pure water, even, cassed me in ense psin, I could take a full dose of your remedy with very slight inconvenience.
Two bottles cared me effectually and permanently. I have used it frequently in my practice for such cases, and cordially recommend it to sufferers with cyspepsis.
